International Democratic Relief Fund

Problem: the philanthropic system

"Big philanthropy is often an exercise of power… that is largely unaccountable [and] does surprisingly little to provide for those in need."

- Review of Just Giving by Rob Reich

Too much power in the hands of too few

- Narrow Problem Space
- Inefficient Resource Allocation

Lack of accountability and transparency

- Undefined Outcomes
- Vulnerable to Abuse

Our Team!

Abridged began a year ago with the mission of integrating the most useful interfaces and design patterns for web3 applications. Our collective experience runs deep from shipping the first TCR, payment channel, and DAO, educating new developers to Ethereum, and managing the Ethereum Foundation grants program.
